Gospel Preacher – Bob Hawkins

“BE STRONG IN THE LORD”

Gary McDade

The key is for members of the Lord’s church to remain keenly aware of the value (John 8:31 32; 14:6) and position of the truth in God’s plan (Romans 2:2).

The tricks and methods of the devil are many and formidable. The whole armor of God is required to stand against them. True then, and true today, are the words of inspiration which instructs, “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand” (Eph. 6:12 13).

The name of Kathrine Maher, CEO of National Public Radio, is nationally well known. A former journalist with NPR recently observed the unanimous stance of the radical left liberalism of the network and resigned due to the extreme prejudice. The United States of America is funding its own demise by financing the $300,000,000 annual budget of NPR. The money for NPR comes indirectly from the Federal Government through the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. NPR does not launder money but uses the same strategy called “layering” in an attempt to hide the actual amount of its government income from the public.

Kathrine Maher came into the public light when her former journalist resigned. She lectured the nation on truth not being the driving force or even the foremost principle behind NPR’s reporting appearing multiple times a day across the entire nation. Her belief that truth is relative — each person has his and her version of truth and there is no objective standard of truth —is the boldest stance for pluralism and relativism, as it technically is called, in recent memory. The popular DEI —Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion —now has a new champion under her leadership of this influential and ubiquitous mass media source. Favorite additional abbreviations that partner with DEI are the better known LGBTQ+ initials for abominations before God (Rom. 1:18 especially, also see: vs.19 32).

Better advice to defend the faith against this onslaught could not be given than Paul’s urging, “Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.” All are aware of the decline in interest among religious people in general and the Lord’s church in particular. The Bible says, “We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair” (2 Cor. 4:8). The key is for members of the Lord’s church to remain keenly aware of the value (John 8:31 32; 14:6) and position of the truth in God’s plan (Rom. 2:2). And, to measure up to the church being “the pillar and ground of the truth” (1 Tim. 3:15) in the world today.
